Hi-Y

We believe it can be said that the Hi-Y club has finished another successful year, with a membership of fifty-four and a cabinet headed by Charles Walters with Mr. Nichols as sponsor.

The annual Father-and-Son Banquet was held February 22, with Orville Johnson from Earlham College as speaker. The club also joined with the Y-Teens in sponsoring a semi-formal Christmas dance.

Other activities were the basketball schedule signboard, a Hi-Y - Y-Teen hay-ride, the Fifth District Hi-Y Conference at Hartford City, and the selling of ice cream during the second semester.

Y-Teens

The year 1951-52 has been one of the most active for the Y-Teens. They started their program of events with the Freshman initiation consisting of a scavenger hunt. This was followed by the Mother and Daughter Tea where the girls were formally initiated during a very impressive candlelighting service.

Mrs. Doris Davis, Mrs. Bernice Chapman, and Mrs. Reese were some of the wonderful speakers the girls were privileged to hear.

Nicholson.

On December 15, the Hi-Y and the Y-Teens sponsored a formal dance, The Candy Cane Cotillion. Jack Armstrong's band played and a stage show featuring Mrs. Shirley Mahoney with other local talent performed.

The annual Mother and Daughter Banquet was held March 7. Miss Ioma Hodson, exchange teacher from United States to England, was the speaker.

Mrs. Jane Nichols was the capable sponsor. The Patronesses were Mrs. Elizabeth Dodd, Mrs. Ernestine Bertram, Mrs. Doris Davis, Mrs. Doris Devine, and Miss Helen Smith.

"Green Valley"

Members of the Senior Class finally revealed their hidden talents in presenting this play under the direction of Miss Byrtis Wagner.

The spirits of "Green Valley" brought the public away from their home fires to enjoy two full evenings of entertainment.

"The Little Dog Laughed"

The Junior Class presented on April 18 a delightful comedy, "The Little Dog Laughed." It seems that Laurie had been away to college and had learned a little about psychology. Then she decided to use her knowledge of the subject on her family. At last, the family tired of it and decided they must teach Laurie a lesson and stop the nonsense.

The scene in which the family staged the purge dance before Laurie and her boy friend was both funny and most effective. Aside from much entertainment for the audience, it taught Laurie a much needed lesson.

Epitome Staff

When this capable and enthusicastic group of students started working, publication of the Epitome was finally underway. The members of the staff who made this Epitome of 1952 possible are:

YOU AND YOUR IDEAS

James Charles Editor-in-chief Asst. Editor Martha Sedgwick Jim Ulrich People Iona Bertram Jackie Shock Features Lore Konig Activities Marilyn Dodd Dale Clayton Sports Doyle Lamb Phil Bond Calendar Mary Maxwell Sarah Small Kay Gray Will Carol McConnell Art Phil Gray

What a race against time! Deadlines, bleeds, crops, and proofs all seemed to come at once. No kidding though, we had a great time making and presenting this '52 Epitome.

Boy Scouts - Be Prepared

Adventure into the unknown, the lakes, and woods has become very popular with the boys. A great deal of credit goes to Mr. Sedgwick, or "Ted" as the boys call him. He has a wonderful knowledge of nature and handicraft and has used his skill in teaching boys how to become better citizens of tomorrow.

Girl Scouts, "Do a Good Deed Daily"

The scouts have accomplished much this year by having a cookie sale, two paper drives, and a trip to Clifty Falls where they spent four days in the outdoor life. Under direction of Miss Cecelia Chipley, the girls are going to have individual badge work and an overnight trip.

Future Farmers of America

The F.F.A. carried out this year's activities with numerous events under the direction of their sponsor, Joe Mobley. Among these activities was the County Soil Judging Contest in which the Hagerstown team placed first with Maurice Messer the highest ranking individual. The club also has participated in many other livestock judging contests.

On March 14, they co-sponsored the Shamrock Dance with the F.H.A.

Operation J. R. C.

At home, over the nation and across the seas, the Junior Red Cross serves voluntarily wherever a need exists.

Some of the projects which have kept council members and volunteers busy this year are: The Student Handbook, a variety show, welfare programs, joke books, overseas gift boxes, and a correspondence album, to name just a few.

The motto of each member is "I serve."

4-H "To Make the Best Better"

I pledge my head to clearer thinking, my heart to greater loyality, my hands to greater service, and my health to cleaner living for my club, my community, and my country." Yes, this is the pledge of the boys and girls who have enrolled in 4-H. They joined not only with the idea of having fun but also with the desire to acquire more and better training in home economics and agriculture.

OUR COACH

Coach Don Saylor has done a swell job of guiding the Tigers through a successful season. Mr. Saylor came from the Southern part of the state, where he turned out several good teams. He is also a reasonable and strict coach. He liked to win but could take defeat along with his wins.

You can expect a good hard driving team wherever he is on the job coaching. So to him we say, best of luck in the future.

YELL LEADERS

Nancy, Smitty, and Joyce comprise this year's group of yell leaders. With the introduction of many new yells they did a great job building up the moral of the fans and team. Thanks a lot for a job well done.

Our Hard Working Managers

"Peewee" Grubbs, "Smiley" Lester, and "Rod" Jarrett.

Invitational Tourney---We Tried!

Um-ph!

CHARLES WALTERS (Senior Forward)—One of the biggest boys on the team, he helped out considerably on the backboards. Charlie's hard drive-ins and set shots helped beat many a team.

PHIL BOND (Senior Guard)—Phil was a good ball handler and showed fine fighting spirit. His consistent playing always showed up when needed.

DALE CLAYTON (Senior Guard)—A scrappy little fellow who always had the opposition wondering what he was going to do next.

MERL TIMMONS (Sophomore Forward)—A hard working underclassman with lots of speed and scrap. Merl always shows a good account of himself when sent into the game.

ERNIE UPCHURCH (Senior Center)—The top scorer and playmaker who led the team to a great season. Ernie developed his tricky faking and unstopable hook shots during three years on the varsity squad.

PHIL WILSON (Sophomore Forward)—Another underclassman with plenty of scrap and fight. Phil helped the team out many times during the season.

BOB TALBERT (Junior Guard)—Another little hot shot who always figured to drop in quite a few points to help the Tiger cause. Bob will be one of the mainstays on the squad next year.

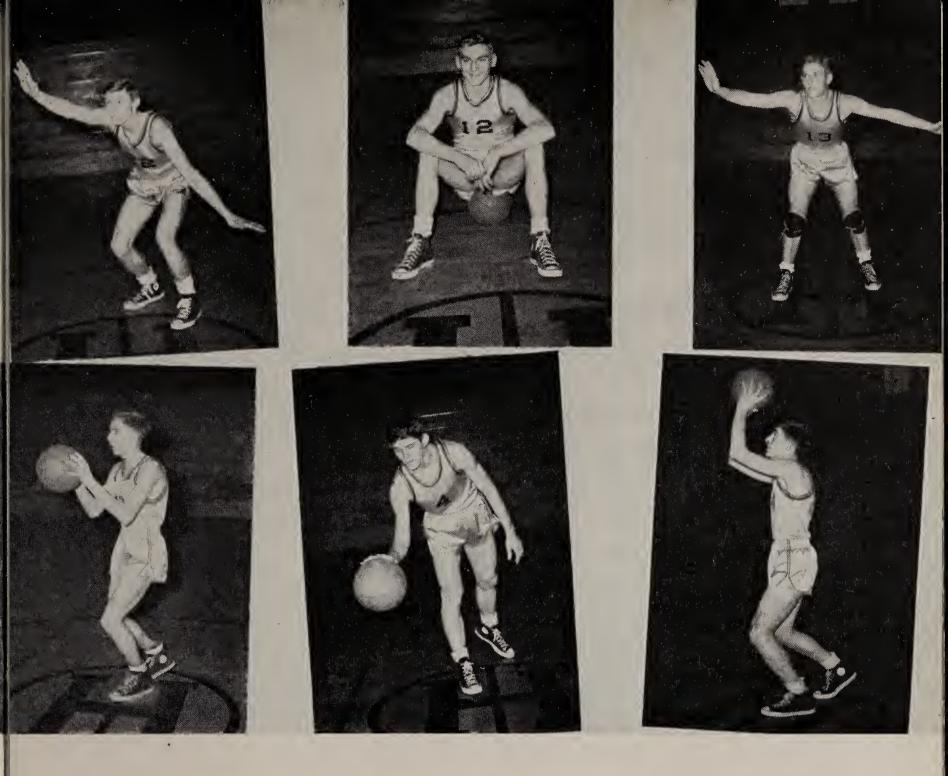

HOMER ANDREWS (Senior Forward)—One of the hardest fighters on the Tiger squad. Homer always did his best and helped the team out when he was in the ball game.

DICK BROWN (Junior Forward)—A good scorer and hard driver. Dick is a real fighter and strong on the backboards. He should help the team to another successful season.

BILL HARTER (Junior Guard)—A good set shot and a hard driver. Bill was always in there plugging whenever needed.

JACK CHAPMAN (Freshman Guard)—Jack, up from the "B" team the last part of the season, helped the team out a lot. He has three more years to play, during which he should develop into a fine player.

RAYMOND SHARP (Junior Forward)—A good one-hand shot and rough on defense. He should be another mainstay on next year's team.

JOHN WEILER (Sophomore Center)—Another big boy who really knows how to handle himself under the basket. John will be lots of help on future Tiger squads.

Kittens

Improving steadily as the season progressed, the Kittens rang up a record of 16 wins and 4 losses. Highlights of their season were a victory over Lawrence-burg's twice beaten "B" team and a victory over Cambridge in the final game of the "B" team tourney to take the trophy.

Football Alive Again At H. H. S.

The Hagerstown Tigers opened their football season at H.H.S. for the first time in a number of years. Although they didn't break into the winning column, the boys got a lot of experience and the feel of the game.

The squad opened its season with Brookville and finished up with Cambridge City, both schools in their second season of the sport.

COACH HOFFMAN

Beginning his second year at H.H.S., Mr. Hoffman has been very busy with his football team along with coaching the "B" team, tennis team, and track team.

So to coach Hoffman we say thanks a lot for a job well done.

Under Mr. Donson's supervision the first semester was spent in studying speech types and giving character sketches, travelogues, and individual speeches of personal interest.

Emphasised during the second semester were character study, dramatics, and the production of one act plays. The speech class also gave several programs for the school.

"Let Me See What You Paint and I Can Tell Your Life History"

Under the direction of Mrs. Jane Nichols, the art classes have been very busy this year. Some of the things accomplished were water coloring, designing, finger painting, and the making of model homes and puppets.

Whenever a helping hand is needed, the art department is always willing to cooperate in every way.

Shop---It Is Popular By All

There has been a big interest in the shop this year. Beverly and the boys learned to run lathes, milling machines, grinders, and to perform many useful operations on these machines. Included with this work was some surveying and blue-print reading.

Ted has really been planning a lot of improvements that he expects to inaugurate in the prospective new shop next year.

Science In The Service of Man

Science is a mystery to most of us, but not to the students who take biology, physics and chemistry. There are experiments dealing with test tubes, laws, and equations with exciting incidents happening all the time.

From such humble surroundings come the great men of science.

LATINA

Latin is a language dead, Dead as it can be; First it killed the Romans, And now it's killing me.

These students seem to enjoy their exciting travel through a land of romance and thrill. The Annual Roman Banquet was held again this year under the sponsorship of Miss Mary Rust.

Ahora Vamos A Visitar Espana

... thats what the Spanish students hear every day from their teacher, Mr. Gilbert Hatley. This class is about the same as an English class except that they use the Spanish language.

Although Mr. Hatley's Muchachos get off the subject now and then, they are eager to learn the language and customs of the people of Spain.

x - y Does It = Math?

Advanced math consists of Plane Geometry, Advanced Algebra, Solid Geometry and Trigonometry, all taught by Mr. Robert Nichols. Angles, lines, planes, sines, and cosines all enter into the vocabulary of these math students. The highlight of the year for these folks was the state math contest in which John Ulrich, James Charles, Bill O'Neel, and Jim Lester participated.

"We the people of the . . ."

The aim of social studies is to make us better citizens. If we ever become half as good as we ought to be, we shall probably be twice as good as we are. Mrs. Devine strives to help us bridge the gap between what we are and what we should be as citizens of a great democracy.

There's Something About A Band

The "A" band this year under direction of Walter Anderson has been quite busy giving out with music on the slightest provocation. The band has set many a foot to tapping to its stirring marches and occasional popular music.

One of its important functions has been entertaining the fans at football and basketball games.

We are indeed proud of the good work the band has done this year.

B-Band

This group will soon advance into the "A" Band. It is important that we have young musicians who can work toward their goal of playing more advanced music.

Left to right, First Row: J. Miller, S. Fox, L. Price, G. Wisener, S. Dale, N. Colvin, J. Campbell, J. Dines, J. Werking.

Third Row: Mr. Anderson, T. Hoover, J. LaMar.

Here Comes the Band

The H.H.S. band led by drum major Gerald Metsker and the six twirlers performed intricate formations at football and basketball games. They also have led many parades through the streets of Hagerstown.

The People of '52

This section deals with those so commonly seen wandering about H. H. S.

Frank M. Cory

A.B. Indiana University, M.A. Columbia University.

We shall remember Mr. Cory as a man whose poise and dignity should be a great inspiration to us all and as a person whom both teachers and students respect. We should indeed be proud of Mr. Cory as we become aware of the position of the superintendent with his endless responsibilities. He has been and will continue to be a person of high respect in this community.

WAYNE H. DONSON

A.B. Olivet Nazarene College, M.S. Indiana University.

In his first year as principal, Mr. Donson has proved himself a valuable asset to our school. He has served as an extremely helpful and inspiring sponsor of the senior class in addition to his many duties as principal and teacher. He has also taken a special interest in each student as a friendly advisor.

School Board

Many of us fail to realize the importance of the school board with its faithful contributions toward the high standards of education at H.H.S. These men deserve much credit this year for their work in making preparations for the new additions to the High School.

Helen Smith

Although Miss Smith's position as clerk is quite different from others, she has played a very important roll in our school years. We are sure that Hagerstown would not be the same without Helen, and we take this opportunity to thank her for her interest and support.

Seventh Grade, Small But Mighty

After a few weeks of strong tension the 7th graders finally learned the swing of things and got into the groove. During the year they held some really terrific parties. From the winnings of the Junior High team which included a few of the 7th grade boys, we forecast a mighty ball team in a few years.

The Class of '54

Just two more hops on the H.H.S. train of education, then on to their own particular field to success. Usually at this point, they are shoved to one side and their upperclassmen take over, but not this year! Everyone has heard of these business managers.

This past year they have made and sold Tiger shakers, sponsored the annual Sophomore Dance and carried on many other money raising campaigns.

This class is also well represented on our basketball team, not to mention the fact that one of our very capable yell leaders is a member of this class.

Juniors, Just One More

These Juniors have been working hard this year for that high light of the school year—the Junior-Senior Prom. Besides having all the dances after the basketball games they had a square dance featuring "Lee Jones." They also staged a great performance of the annual Junior play. We wish them loads of good luck in their Senior year.

The Class of '52

We feel that after honoring all of the other groups which have played important parts at H.H.S., that the spotlight should now shine on us in this '52 EPITOME.

Being one of the smallest classes to graduate in a number of years from this school, we think that we have done a pretty good job of upholding the fair name of SENIOR.

We would also at this time like to thank Mrs. Doris Devine and Mr. Wayne Donson for their invaluable help during this past year.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Homer Andrews wills his basketball shoes to Mr. Saylor so Saylor can find somebody as good as Homer to play in them.

Iona Bertram wills her ability to be at school (and on time) to Fred Bennett.

Phil Bond wills his bashfulness and embarrasing situations to Labourn Morrison.

Pat Chamness wills her flaming tresses and quiet manners to the Junior class providing they use them to the extent Pat did.

James Charles wills his job as Editor of the Epitome to any Junior crazy enough to take it.

Dale Clayton wills his ability to get along with the younger generation to the younger generation.

Marilyn Dodd, in a specially benevolent mood, bequeathes to Janel Seffrin her ability to aggravate Mr. Donson.

Edith Garvin bequeathes her Shorthand Notes to anyone who can peruse them with facility. (Confidentially, we can't figure them out.)

Carolyn Gates leaves her ability for yelling (to a certain Senior boy) at ball games to the Junior who has a boyfriend on the team.

Daniel Goar wills his scooter bike to Miss Wagner providing she rides it to school all next winter.

Kay Gray wills her giggle to the freshman class because Kay said that a freshman should always giggle.

Philip Gray wills his dislike for girls to Dick Foulke hoping Dick will appreciate the gift.

Beverly Grubbs wills her technique of getting a diamond to Doris Lamb.

Maribelle Hays wills her quietness to Joyce Segriest for obvious reasons.

Don Hilbert wills his typical G.I. haircut to Mr. Barnhart providing Mr. Barnhart won't cut it.

Harold Hilbert wills his one and only accomplishment of getting into trouble to Jerry Gerard. (Does Jerry need it?)

Bob Hodson wills his wardrobe to all those wanting what's left of it.

Raellen House bestows her cheery smile and sunny disposition to H.H.S. to distribute as needed.

Beverly Jarrett wills her sun tan spots (freckles to you) to any strawberry blonde who will have them.

Ralph Kenworthy isn't going to will anything because he doesn't know when he will need it.

Lore Konig wills her baby blue eyes and natural curly hair to anyone not having these qualifications.

Edward Lefever wills his sax and piano playing to Mr. Anderson so he can distribute as needed.

Doyle Lamb bestows one-tenth of his knowledge to David McIntyre so Dave won't have any trouble staying on the team.

Shirley Maddy wills her shortness to Shiela Brooks. (Need we say anymore.)

Carol McConnell was going to will Bill but decided she couldn't get along without him.

Mary Maxwell leaves her position as office girl to any junior who can keep her stomach from growling before lunch.

Ramon Meeks wills his muscular body to the Science Department to tear apart and see what made him tick.

Maurice Messer wills his shortness and blonde hair to Jim Litton hoping Jim will arrive at a happy medium.

Gerald Metsker wills his drum major uniform to Tom Hensly providing Tom will grow into it.

Ruth Pitts bequeathes her matrimonial abilities to all H.H.S. girls with old maidish tendencies. (If there are any.)

Carlos Reese wills his guitar playing to any Junior who can play a guitar and make as good a catch as Carlos did.

Norma Resler bequeathes her modest habit of blushing a multitude of fetching shades of red at any excuse to Barbara Owens.

Martha Sedgwick wills her driving ability (?) to Marthanna Rinehart because Marthanna doesn't have enough excitement.

Jackie Shock wills her artistic ability to all prom committees.

Sarah Small wills her secret love—on second thought she won't will it because it wouldn't be a secret then.

Joe Smith wills his wavy black locks to Bill Harter because he thinks Bill will keep it combed as well as he did.

Marcella Stewart wills her bookkeeping manual to anyone who will take it far, far away.

Elbert Stockberger wills his job at Krogers to anyone who wants a good excuse for not working at refreshments on basketball nights.

Verl Swearingen wills his ability to waste time to Tommy Root who probably does not waste enough.

James Ulrich wills his ability to gossip with all the girls to the Junior boys 'cause he thinks they would get along better with Junior girls.

Ernie Upchurch wills his heart's dearest (Nancy) to the Junior class providing they will take care of her as well as Ernie did.

Margaret Walker desires to will her place in bookkeeping to any Junior wanting to get by with whispering and not get caught.

John Ulrich has agreed to leave his ability to grow wavy hair to Skinny Willard. It is such a bother isn't it, John?

Charles Walters wills his ability to argue—but on second thought he might need it when he gets married. JOKE!

Daniel Woolums bequeathes his ability to speed without being tapped by the long arm of the law to Jerome Nicholson.

Smitty Doughty wills his ability to get four minuses in self-control to Bob Davis providing Bob wants them.

And now we the Seniors of '52 do bequeath to all other classes all debris left in lockers, all chewing gum stuck under desks, all marks on walls and floors, and, last but not least, to the Class of "53" we bestow the name that reigns over all, S E N I O R S.

PROPHESY

Let us turn our clocks ahead twenty years. No, this is nothing like daylight saving time or anything like that, we just want to see what the old class of "52" has done with itself.

I saw in the paper the other day where Smitty Doughty was building a rocket ship to the moon. His very able assistant on this Lunar Luxurie Liner is Dan Goar. (He lights the fuse when they get ready for the take-off.)

Martha Sedgwick, famous for her many house-hold inventions, has just perfected a dish-washer where-by you can wash your dishes without getting your hands wet. She calls it a maid.

You can now take life easy by driving around in your push-botton automobile. Dale Clayton is president of the firm that makes these handy little items and Marilyn Dodd is his head sales-lady.

Some of the old grads went together to form a circus. It is called the (Ramon) Meeks and (Kay) Gray Big Top Circus. Their ringmaster is John Ulrich who always could hand out a line. Marcella Stewart and Pat Chamness have become famous tightrope walkers. It seems their specialty is getting into a 'let's drop over sometime' position.

Edith Garvin has just broken the record for blowing the biggest bubble in a nation-wide bubble gum contest. Her prize is a ten year's supply of bubble gum made by the Iona Bertram bubble gum factory.

James Charles is now president of Purdue University and is trying to amalgamate Purdue and Indiana. Margaret Walker is Dean of women and the word is that she lets them get away with murder. Ernest Upchurch is head coach and is trying for his seventh big-ten championship.

Sarah Small runs a small dude ranch in the North-west along with her foreman, Joe Smith. That is, when he isn't hunting jack-rabbits.

Harold Hilbert, Carlos Reese, Ralph Kenworthy, and Maurice Messer are making millions selling records for the Pot and Pan Company which is owned by Beverly Grubbs (now Meyers).

Phil Gray is noted for his ideas in making women's hats. He's made some real clever ones too. Doyle Lamb should be given credit for the finishing touches because they are really finished when he gets through with them. Beverly Jarrett, Ruth Pitts, and Shirley Maddy pooled their knowledge to start up a love-lorn agency. Their first customers were Charles Walters and Phil Bond who have just returned from Alaska where they were tracing down leads.

Jackie Shock is out to swim the Channel and has engaged as her manager, Homer Andrew. They have been training for about six months and the rumor is that neither of them have so much as put their foot in the water in ten years.

Jim Ulrich has gone into business making glasses. He has all shapes, sizes, and designs. His motto is, "If you can't see, at least look attractive."

Gerald Metsker has just returned from Paris. It seems that he is a famous dress designer and he came back home to get some ideas from his U. S. associate, Lore Konig. You should see them sometime. They would really keep you in stitches.

Norma Resler has become a wealthy Prince's wife in India and lives in a big palace with (you guessed it) ten other wives.

Carol McConnell now lives in Ohio. It seems she has become a professional baby sitter.

Raellen House started her career in nursing and now has a chain of hospitals throughout Canada and Alaska.

Carolyn Gates married a farmer and they converted their barn into a chicken house. Now she has to learn how to take care of the chickens.

Maribelle Hayes finally became a private secretary to Dan Woolums who is making millions by selling auto insurance.

Verl Swearingen just wrote the book "How to Skip School Successfully." We hear he receives lots of fan mail.

Elbert Stockberger became a writer too. He writes a column about some of the funny characters he met in high school. (If I remember correctly there were quite a few.)

Don Hilbert is now a professor of military strategy at West Point. He hopes to be moved up to the Pentagon in a few years.

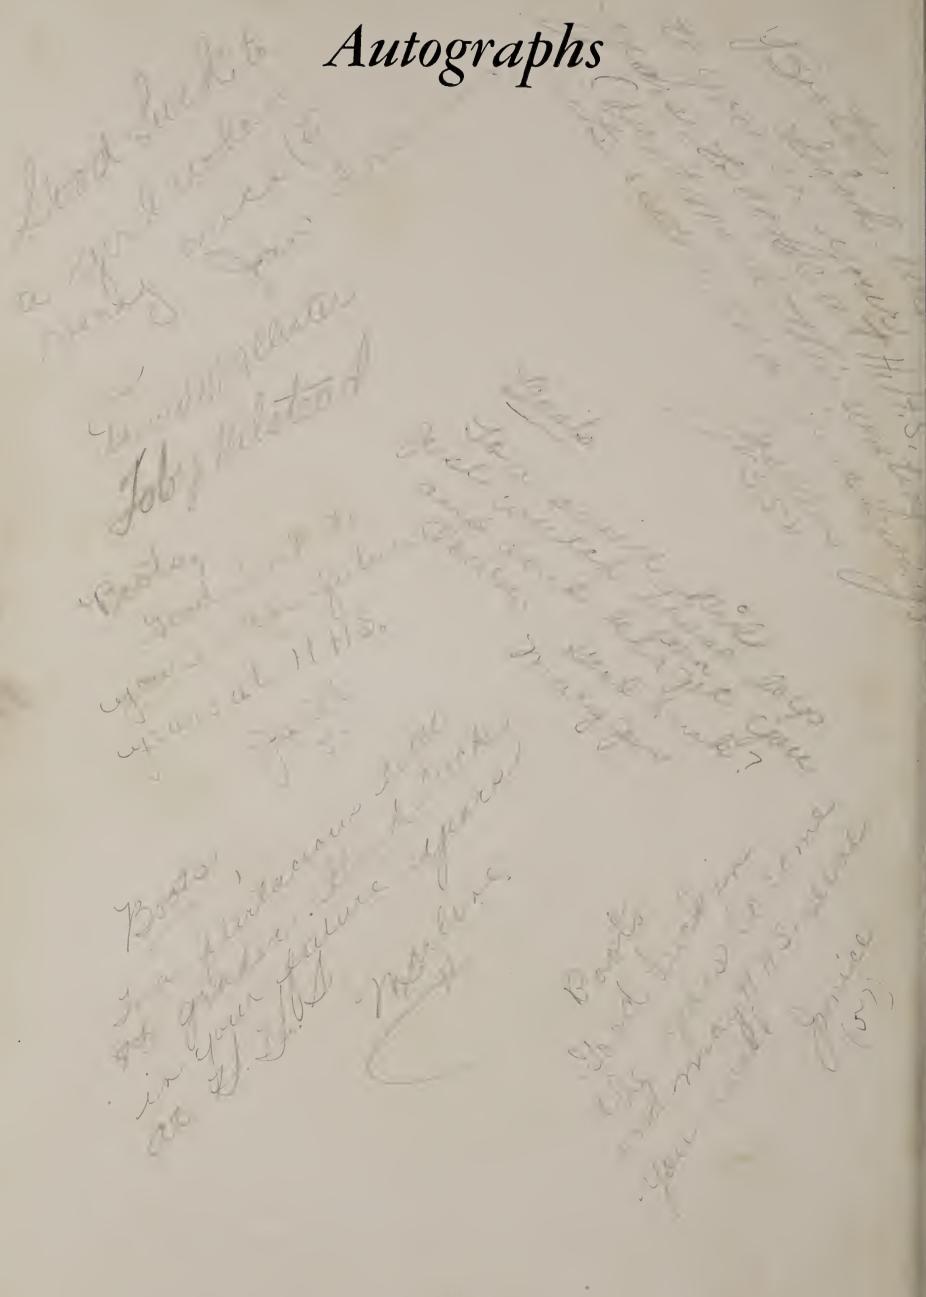

Here is something interesting. Ed Lafever has just invented a pencil that you never have to sharpen with an eraser that won't wear out. That, I would like to see.

Bob Hodson probably went farther than anyone. He's President of the United States. His secretary, though, is Mary Maxwell, who, in her spare time runs a Woof-Woof theater. And we thought national affairs were bad back in '52.

(Editor's Note:) Any similarity between this and actual happenings is purely incidental.
